OFF THE RACE TRACK: FROM COLOR-BLIND TO COLOR-KIND (PAPERBACK)

Independently Published, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. "What you are about to read is both a history and the personal experience of Steve Simms from Tennessee. Steve grew up in the segregated South--but had no idea the "racial divide" was as great as it was, nor why it existed in the first place. He speaks from the heart, while not skirting the main issue of racism in America--its history and present despair - but he provides incredible hope for America's struggle with this most volatile issue. Seriously - you will not want to put this book down--it's just too dynamic. It's time to address these issue in a way of reconciliation and restoration of our fragmented society . . . this book has come during a most divisive time in American history . . . may it be a "balm in Gilead" to heal our wounds.Doug Krieger, Rtd. California Public Schools Administrator, Editor, Tribnet Publications: "Despite the many changes, our nation still struggles with racism and its legacy. Steve Simms walks us bravely through our dark history of slavery, while managing to do so with warmth and grace. He introduces us to unsung heroes, points out the faults of those we have long idolized, and ultimately paints a picture full of color and wonder and love. This is a book that should be read by everyone. It is a vital clanging of the bell, a wake-up call, and points us to-ward the power of love which can change generations to come. Simms writes with unsurpassed passion and grace"Eric Wilson, New York Times bestselling author of Fireproof and Facing the Giants"The racial divide in America is real and it is deep. Steve Simms begins his exploration of the problem with three questions. He then takes...
